

I believe that every mans home is his place for peace quite and privacy. It is the one place that is sanctuary a refuge to enjoy without outside anoyances. It is every individuals right not to be bothered by advertisors on a private phone that we are paying through the nose for. If they want to provide a free phone for calling and receiving calls free of any and all charges then they may call. Till that happens with out monitary compensation for this advertising media THREE WORDS "DO NOT CALL"
